

NAHT(NI) Middle Leader Development 2019

In response to the lack of training and support from the employing authorities and the increasing demands on members, NAHT(NI) will be resuming a programme of Middle Leader Development which is designed to support those in middle leadership roles.

Devised and delivered by experienced school leaders, this programme will provide insights into the roles and responsibilities of middle leaders in all sectors. Attendees will benefit from a school focused, active research approach which will provide opportunities for networking and discussion.

Programme Aims

- To encourage self awareness
- To contextualise middle leader work
- To deepen understanding of what drives leadership
- To provide practical guidance on successful middle leadership
- To build a network of trusted colleagues
- To provide steps to senior leadership roles

The programme will be delivered in three twilight seminars in two separate venues, the Dunsilly Hotel in Antrim and the Glenavon Hotel in Cookstown. Each session will commence at 5pm ending at 7pm. The programme culminates in a half day conference with renowned leadership facilitator 'The Real' David Cameron on 1st May at the Dunsilly Hotel at 10am-12.30pm.

Session 1: Leading Self to Lead Others

Vision into Practice - Qualities and Moral Drivers - Personal Capacity

Session 2: Leading Others

Leading Learning - Leading People - Leading Change

Session 3: Leading Improvement

Accountability - Whole School Development - Securing Improvement - Evaluative Working
